SCENES IN THE HOUSE AND SENATE

Members of the Lower Branch Pass the Time Poking Fun at the Interior Decorations -- Three Bills Introduced in the Senate by Mr. Vaughan -- A Bill Offered Creating a Mining Department of the State.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jap. 6.-The house met at 11 o'clock this morning and Speaker Boyer introduced the chaplain, Rev. M. H. Sangree, of Harrisburg, who invoked the blessing of God on the members in their deliberations. Speaker Boyer requested the members to communicate with him regarding their preferences as to places on committees. Mr. Lytle, of Huntingdon, offered a resolution that the house proceed to nominate candidates for United States senator and to appoint tellers on the part of the house. It was agreed to, and Mr. Lytle nominated Hon. Boies Penrose. Mr. Long, of York, nominated Hon. Chauncey F. Black. Peter M. Speer, of Venango, was appointed teller on the part of the house. A communication was read from Representative Walton Penniwell of the Fifteenth district, notifying the house that he declined to qualify as a

Mr. Lytle, of Huntingdon, offered a resolution commencing the work on the board of public buildings and grounds in remodelling the hall of the house, and thanking the board for its success in improving the accoustics.

Mr. Crothers, of Philadelphia, obected to the resolution, inasmuch as the members two years ago were not aware that so much money was to be spent in changing the conditions of the | ST. hall. He criticised the decorations as being gaudy and circus-like, and denounced them as being in bad taste. Messrs. Fredericks, of Clinton; Bliss, of Delaware; Lytle, of Huntingdon, and Patterson, of Cameron, supported the resolution in brief speeches. They though the commissioners deserved thanks for succeeding so well in reforming the acoustics, and facetiously referred to the allegorical paintings as being a great attraction for the rural

Mr. Crothers objected that $70,000 was too much to pay for lowering a reiling. He thought the results should have been accomplished for $19,900.

Mr. Focht, of Union, referred to the decorations as like those of a valentine. Mr. Gould, of Erie, said the colors were restful to the eye, and he favored the resolutions.

Mr. Gould was asked by Mr. Crothers what the allegorical paintings about 100 inmates. Most of the stumeant, and replied that a lecture would dents, however, were away for the holis

Speaker Boyer announced that the changes had been made after an opinlegality of the action, Mr. Bolles Weight, as handsome a suiting as to the committee on buildings and grounds. He subsequently withdrew adopted with a few dissenting votes. This concluded the business of the scision and the house adjourned until senate to order at 11 o'clock this morning. It was an entirely different scene | life. On every floor their dead bodies from that of vesterday, when every seat was occupied and the galleries crowded. Many of the seats were vacant when the gavel fell. After prayer by the chaplain, three bills were read in place by Mr. Vaughan, of Lackawanna. All of them affect cities of the third class, the first being an act to regulate civil service in these citles. It provides for a civil service commission of three persons, the mempers to hold no lucrative position under the United States or state of Pennsylvania. The second and third measures provide for the election of a receiver of taxes and define the powers of the officials of such municipalities. Mr. Stineman, of Cambria, introduced Sale Price, 50c a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to draft memorial resolutions on the death of Hon. John A. Lemon, which was adopted. As chairman of the Republican caucus, Mr. Grady placed in nomination for United tates senator, on behalf of the senate Republicans, Boies Penrose, the nominee of the Republican caucus of last night. On the part of the Democrats, Mr. Haines, of York, presented the name of ex-Lieutenant Governor Chauncey F. Black. Mr. Gobin, of Lebanon, was chosen teller on the part of the senate. Mr. Flinn read in place three bills repealing the greater Pittsburg bills. Mr. Coyle, of Schuylkill, offered a bill creating a mining department of the state. The bill provides that the governor appoint a commissioner of mines, who shall serve for four years, at an annual salary of $5,000 and to enter upon his duties the first Monday of July. He is empowered to appoint not exceeding five clerks, one to be his deputy, at a salary of $2,500, and four at a salary of $1,500 each. It shall be his duty to enforce all the laws relating to mines and regulating mining com-

PENROSE'S COURSE.

Most of the senators have left the city this evening, and those remaining will return to their homes in a day or two, to remain until the reassembling of the body. The main topic of discussion during the day has been the result of the senatorial caucus, and in consequence the attention of nearly everybody who visited the upper branch has been drawn to the successful contest-There has been considerable speculation as to whether Mr. Penrose will retain his seat after the election. This is set at rest by a statement coming from him in which he asserts he will not resign until the end of the egislative session unless congress be alled together in special session prior

MR. BRYAN TALKS ON BIMETALLISM

He Reviews the Past Campaign from Chicago to the Polls.

GAINS MADE BY THE SILVER PARTY

The Orator Has No Doubt of the Ultimate Success of the Movement. He Is Willing That the Republicans Should Steal His Thunder -- Will Observe Jackson's Day.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 6 .- The Lansing theater was completely alled this morning when the state bimetallic conference was called to order. When Mr Bryan entered the hall he was greeted with deafening applause. Judge Green reviewed the campaign of 1896 and said that while beaten at the polls, the silver forces were not conquered. The battle of Bull Run did not decided the civil war, nor had the battle of '96 decided the silver cause.

Mr. Bryan said the warm reception accorded him prompted him to paraphrase an old saying which would read:

"It is better to have run and lost, than not to have run at all." He reviewed the campaign from the Chicago convention until the close of the polls He showed the great gain made by the silver party since '94 and said that he believed that with the efforts to b made during the next four years, there could be not doubt of a victory in 1900. done to save the building. Seven nuns He spoke of the Bimetallic league, were smothered in the smoke. Their which is about to be organized in this state, and advised that all friends of silver, regardless of party affiliations, should be enrolled under one banner. He suggested that the legislature should still further amend the election laws of the state to the end that the voters should be better protected from intimidation, also that the corporations should not be permitted to contribute funds for election purposes. Such contributions of corporations funds was in direct violation of corporate charters.

HIS GREAT HIT.

He made a great hit when he said that while the doctrine of bimetallism had been defeated at the polls it had made Republicans hope that bimetal-lism would be secured before the next presidential election. Some friends of the cause feared the Republicans would manage to steal the bimetallic thunder but if they had a desire to steal it, he was ready to place his thunder upon the front porch, where it would within easy reach of the thieves.

He spoke for nearly an hour and at the close the audience rose and gave him three hearty cheers. Both houses of the legislature adjourned during Mr. Bryan's speech, ground that an immoral person can- ants, planters and others was held toand most of the members heard it.

New York, Jan. 6.-Henry Southgate. on of the late Bishop Southgate, was today removed by Justice Truax in the supreme court as a trustee under the will of Charles L. R. the door of the room they were in Hutchinson for a trust fund created for the benefit of Harriet E. Hume, now

Mrs. Harriet A. Whitmore, Mrs. Whitmore, the plaintiff in the suit, is named in the will as "the friend" of the testator Hutchinson, cross-examination occupied two hours, who was also the uncle of Southgate. By a codicil to his will dated Sept. 13, 1887 Hutchinson left the sum of $20,000 in trust for Harriet Hume. In a second codicil dated Nov. 9, 1887, the testator left his friend $50,000 in trust with the provision "that should there be a child of the said Harriet Humo born after my death, of which I am or may be the father, or putative father and which by reason of my relations with her at the time of my death, would by legal implication be a posthumous child of mine, though illegitimate the said Henry Southgate shall retain the sum of $50,000 during the minority of the said posthumous child." Hutchinson died September 28, 1890. No child was born to Miss Hume, and in January, 1893, she married Walter

S. Whitmore, In the affidavits on which Southgate was removed charge are made that he is a man of bad moral character and of dissipated habits and that he has been using the moneys collected on Mrs. Whitmore's behalf for his own benefit. Southgate denied all the allegations made against him.

Superintendent of the Shenandoah Schools Is Accused of a Serious Crime by Clara Vates.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 6.-The trial of rofessor C. D. Bogart, on a charge which has interested school directors and teachers all over the state and which has caused a religious war at Shenandoah, Pa., was begun today in the criminal court. The information was made by James Smith, a member of the Shenandoah school board. Professor Bogart was formerly principal of the Knoxville borough schools, this county, and had a good reputation. He resigned his position there last April because Clara Vates, 13 years old, made charges against him. Bogart then went to Shenandoah, where last May he was elected superintendent of the schools there. The story of the Knoxville charge followed him, and a tendent of public instruction. STORY OF A SEAL SKIN CAPE. It Causes the Death of Edward S. Boyer of Reading.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 6.—Edward S. Boyer, who had charge of the coal department and Dlig & Bros.' store, and who was accused by Mim Clara Gable, several weeks ago, of presenting her with a seal skin cape, is dead. Boyer denied the charge and the girl was arrested on the tcharge of stealing it. She was tried and the next day Boyer's mind gave way and he expired this evening of nervous prostraton.
At the trial Miss Gable insisted that Hoyer gave her the cape last August.
